HONOLULU, H. I., MONDAY, AUGUST 12, 1895.

No. 42.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Our last imports from the Orient were bugs and filibusters. Marsden has the bugs; but the government hasn't got the filibusters.

Slowly the scant liberty granted the people under the document called by courtesy a constitution is being sapped, and we shall some day wake to a realization that ours is a government by star chamber methods.

Soberly we have to ask how long the planters, merchants and mechanics of the islands propose to allow their rights to be ignored by the oligarchy which they placed in power? The arrogance of this oligarchy grows by what it feeds on.

The Hilborn business and the Rev. Cook business will probably give pause to the indiscriminate wining, dining—well entertaining, of strangers here to induce them to say on their return to their homes that this is "the best government Hawaii ever had." As if a stranger could know what we had before.

The Advertiser editor as usual airs his utter lack of knowledge of school matters and his want of acquaintance with the educational facilities of the country, and compares the present status to a man training race horses by hitching them to dump carts. His remedies would put them on the dump carts to go out to Mr. A. F. Cooke's bone mill.

One thing is certain the opening of the Waianae railroad is appreciated by the backbone of the country—the mechanic and workman—no matter who else runs it down. It affords them a cheap outing for themselves and families and they begin to take advantage of it. They know what is good for them and who is their benefactor in this matter.

The Hon. Mr. Hilborn was sought by the Chief Justice before he left our shores, and the burden of the C. J.'s talk was that he was not the descendant of a missionary. Now, what we wish to know is why the C. J. seeks to leave the missionary party just at this time? However, the Mission Children's Society, of which the C. J. is a bright and shining light, may take the C. J. in hand and ascertain what he was the descendant of, and how he came in their fold.

Mr. Camarinos, one of the exiles, is again on our shores, and he started back without permission given by W. O. Smith or E. G. Hitchcock. On arriving here he was detained until Mr. Hatch said he could come ashore. Mr. Camarinos' bluff called down the cards of Mr. Dole's government. This submission on the part of the government seems to us to be significant of something. Can it be that the claims have called down "the best government these islands ever had?"

May we ask, without being thought impertinent, why Col. Z. S. Spalding should be granted privileges which no other tax-payer has been granted? Why, if this is a government of the people and by the people and for the people, Colonel Spalding is allowed to impose a tax upon the tax-payers of over a dollar per capita per year for twenty years for a scheme that will not bear the light and heat of public investigation and consideration? Who gave President Dole and his colleagues the power to impose taxation without representation at the beck and call of Colonel Spalding?

DESCRIPTION AND TERMS:

"CREOLE" is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:18 in Petaluma, Cal., August 24, 1894, distancing his whole field in the first heat; then again to 2:15 in Stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15, fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole by Prompter out of Grace by Buccaneer shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10, and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed and remarkably intelligent."—Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.) He is 15½ hands high and of powerful build throughout. His color is glossy black with one white hind foot. His disposition is all that could be desired and his action superb. He is a sure foal getter.

TERMS $50, with usual return privilege. Will make the season at the
